

HIGH IMPACT

Leadership Series

2024 Application Packet

What's High Impact All About?

In partnership with SparkPoint, ICAA is offering a leadership series to help any leader, manager, or aspiring leader (whether you supervise a team or not) feel more confident with critical leadership and organizational development skills. We will offer practical, easy-to-use materials and concepts that can be put to use right away in Community Action.

Feel more confident, learn new skills, and network with other dynamic leaders: High Impact is an excellent way to strengthen your organization and invest in developing high-performing leaders and resilient advocates for Community Action. Four anchor concepts will be covered:

- Communication Leadership: difficult conversations/handling conflict; effective communication; effective meetings; communication styles
- Thought Leadership: process improvement; strategic thinking; project management; decision making
- Management: goal/expectation setting; performance feedback/coaching; staff buy-in/pull-through; employee engagement/recognition; transitioning roles (bud to boss)
- Culture Leadership: self-awareness/emotional intelligence; improving organizational culture; building relationships; personality/leadership styles; awareness

Commitment

The yearlong series is designed to incorporate monthly virtual workshops to teach timely topics through interactive discussions and application assignments.

Cost

$750 per person with a minimum of 18 participants and a maximum of 25. More than one cohort may be available depending on interest.
